DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1- 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

As per claim 1, the recitation "the register arranged linearly", line 4, is indefinite as to how the registers are arranged. Claims 18,19 and 21 have the same problems.

As per claims 12, the recitation "the registers in a linear array", line 12, is also indefinite as to how the registers are arranged in a "polyphase transposed filter mode".

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-7,9-11 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Van Dalfsen et al. (5,829,695).

Dalfsen et al. discloses in figure 3 a reconfigurable filter having multiple filtering modes, including logic circuitry having  $X (=2)$  by  $Y (=6)$  array of registers (Ts) arranged differently in different modes, computational circuit including at least  $Y$  multiplication logic circuits (M) and  $Y$  addition logic circuits (A, A'), and mode first (SEL, S') and second (S) selection circuits for switching between the filtering modes including at least polyphase direct, polyphase transposed, direct FIR, and transposed FIR filtering (see col. 4, lines 8-52). The filter can be seen as sliced circuits corresponding to the index (0-5).

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Chuong D Ngo whose telephone number is (703) 305-9764. The examiner can normally be reached on Tuesday-Friday.
